The fatal effects of female curiosity have long been the subject of story and legend. Pandora and Psyche are examples of women in mythic stories whose curiosity is punished by dire consequences. In giving his wife the keys to his castle, Bluebeard is acting the part of the serpent, and therefore of the devil, and his wife the part of the victim held by the serpent's gaze.

The dark comedic elements come from the exchanges between Anna and Robbie. After she brings him home, Anna bluntly admits, "I'm a vampire." Without missing a beat, Robbie says, "I kinda figured." She goes on to say that she's going to kill him and drink his blood. He's mostly unbothered by it. His nonchalance is funny, but also sad.
