"ImpactADHD ® has been a critical resource to me as a parent of a "complex" child and has gotten me through the last few years with a steady, positive view of complex kids -- and incredibly practical information that is based on the most current thinking about ADHD. In previous years, well-intentioned advice just never seemed to work, and that made me feel terrible about what I was doing.

When we do too much for our kids—when we over-function for them—we rob them of the skills and practice necessary to develop competence and mastery in life. Instead of learning life skills, they develop a problem that psychologists refer to as learned helplessness. This is certainly not our intention when we aim to help our kids.
