The software is the SSC Service Utility v4.30. Whats really annoying, and will probably stop me buying Epson again, is that (ignoring the cost of ink and boy does it love to drink ink!!!) is that this is a multi-function printer and it won't let me use the scanner!! I use that more than printing. Any help for the forum would be great! Cheers, FC

The very common problem of 'epson ink cartridges cannot be recognised' is perhaps one of the most annoying and by far the most common cry from Epson printer owners.Believe it or not it is as common with Genuine inks as it is with compatibles. The problem can occur for a number of reasons and the simplest solution is this:

Epson ink cartridges cannot be recognised

The SureColor P400, 600, 800, R800, R1800, R1900, R2000, R2200, R2400, R2800, R2880, all are excellent in their own right. Outside from Epson, there's the Canon Pixma Pro 9500, and the Canon Image Prograf Pro 1000. I'd personally advise sticking clear of anything made by HP, but that's my personal bias of course.
