life. Sometimes the hardships come for a
short season, and other times they seem to last longer than anticipated.

poems depict a variety of emotions, states and stories — from fury to grief to hope. From Maya Angelou to Claudia Rankine, the writers behind these poems remind us of the progress we have made as a nation, how much we have overcome in the past, and how much more work we have yet to do. May their words help you mourn, cope and fight, today and
