Laird Of The Mist Macgregors

A Romeo and Juliet tale with plenty of Hatfield's and McCoy's thrown into the mix, Quinn does a fine job of making the Scottish medieval setting in Laird of the Mist feel accurate and I got the feeling she threw in a bit of real history too. The Campbells and the MacGregor's have been fighting for hundreds of years.

With the blood of the legendary laird of the mist flowing through their veins, Callum MacGregor's grandchildren are no less troublesome and terrifying than the warriors who came before them. Most of the time they prefer to battle neighboring clansmen and an occasional fleet of privateers rather than ride all the way to England to kick the arses of men who wear wigs.
