Roman Legionary Ad 69 161

As usual a good small booklet which presents the main themes of the life of a legionary in the time of the Empire AD 69-161. This was a time when much of the Empire was at peace and when Roman tourism first sprang forth. The book however emphasises the life of a legionary such as his tasks, his uniform, armour, weapons etc. as well as training.

Roman Legionary AD 69-161 (Warrior): Cowan, Ross, O ...

Between AD 69 and 161 the composition of the Roman legions was transformed. Italians were almost entirely replaced by provincial recruits, men for whom Latin was at best a second language, and yet the 'Roman-ness' of these Germans, Pannonians, Spaniards, Africans and Syrians, fostered in isolated fortresses on the frontiers, was incredibly strong. Like the Italian yeomen who had battled Pyrrhus and Hannibal centuries before, the provincial legionaries were imbued with the traditional ethos ...
