Roman R Lic Isaac Asimov - wakati.co
This is a VERY well-written, entertaining history of the Roman Empire. It does have some factual errors. A serious flaw is that Asimov apparently harbors some hostility towards Christianity, so much so that he allows his opinion to cloud historical facts. This is unfortunate, as it mars the latter half of his book.

Bondanella (listed in Further reading) analyzes Asimov's Galactic Empire as an example of the influence of the myth and history of the Roman Empire upon modern fiction. Asimov himself wrote two non-fiction books on the subject of the Roman Empire, aimed at the mass market and young readerships, The Roman Republic in 1966 and The Roman Empire in 1967, reflecting the positive view of the Roman Empire that then prevailed, as it was considered the prototype of the rising American Empire.
