Summary and reviews of The Emerald Light in the Air by ...

The stories in "The Emerald Light in the Air" showcase Donald Antrim's polished, beautifully crafted prose. In them he exposes the human condition with surgical precision. He's been described as a "poet of 21st century paranoia" and this collection certainly bears this out.

The Emerald Light in the Air - Book Review by Anne Jenner

I only recently discovered Donald Antrim by coming across one of his short stories, "The Emerald Light in the Air", in the Guardian article on their top ten short stories, mentioned on my Short Stories page.. This collection takes its title from that story and displays why he's a master of the short story form. Antrim has been described as a "poet of 21 st century paranoia" and this ...

The Emerald Light in the Air - Anne Jenner

"The Emerald Light in the Air" refers to the sickly tint in the air before a storm, which captures the overall mood of these stories, where bad news seems to be just about ready to come raining down. But there's wisdom and humor here, too; Antrim is attuned to the way couples struggle to make themselves heard or obscure their true feelings.
