The book This Is God is a gentle reminder, in bold graphics, of some of the things God wants people to do and be and remember. It is a great gift for parents to give their children at graduation or any time of the year. I put you here for a reason. If someone is hungry, give him food. If someone is thirsty, give him something to drink.

Even fasting can be done with the thought that somehow if we give up food, God will give us what we want. But that's not the fasting God desires. He wants us to come to Him in prayer for the praise of His great glory. Piper says, The most fundamental reason why fasting cannot earn anything from God is that it is a gift of God.

God looks at the heart of man. It's not about how much you give. God looks at the heart. You could give your last dollar and that could be more to God than someone who gave $1000 dollars. We don't have to give more, but I believe the more you trust the Lord with your finances it will result in giving more. If there is no love, there is nothing.
